Methods of Resolving Vectors (cont'd)

2. Using Right Trigonometry (must form a right triangle)

If the vectors act at 90° angles (creating a right triangle), they can be resolved using right-angle trig. and the Pythagorean theorem.

ex.
Find the displacement of an airplane that flies 500 km due south and then 700 km due west.